Preface

This publication contains recommendations and resolutions of the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights (ACHPR) since its establishment in 1987 on very important issues adjudged to be pertinent to its operations as the implementation body of the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights. The decision to publish and publicise these recommendations and resolutions is in line with the Commission’s commitment to openness and continuing desire to minimise or remove confidentiality, with regard to the work and proceedings of the Commission. This publication thus introduces to the public, other mechanisms by which the Commission tries to enhance its effectiveness as it strives to ensure implementation of the African Charter.

The publication is also in furtherance of the recognition that publicity is essential for the promotion of human and peoples’ rights. For instance, some of the recommendations and resolutions obligate States Parties to the Charter to accomplish stated objectives seen as facilitative of the Commission’s work. Most of these obligations, such as provided for in the resolutions for the integration of articles 1-29 of the Charter; international humanitarian law into domestic legislation; inclusion in the training of all law enforcement officers, civil and military and in the educational curriculum for all schools, private and public, at all levels, are yet to be fulfilled by many State Parties. It is therefore hoped that this publication will serve as a reminder to defaulting States and all concerned or involved in the promotion and protection of human and peoples’ rights that there is much work yet to be done.

The recommendations and resolutions contained in this pamphlet are in the main, consequential rules borne out of the experiences of the Commission since its establishment. They entail essential details necessary to give practicality and eliminate confusion from the broad formulae sometimes offered by the African Charter. The resolution on State Party reporting, for instance, empowers the Commission to give guidelines for the preparation of State reports and to examine them. The recommendations and resolutions also serve as useful guidelines intended to give operational effect to certain Charter provisions and consequently the expectations that can, with the benefit of clarity, be placed on the African Commission.

The publication of the recommendations and resolutions of the African Commission shall be continued as part of the evolving process of rendering the workings and work of the Commission a matter of public record. The Commission hopes by this, to generate and benefit from attendant public debates and positive contributions.

Most importantly, however, is the fact that it gives the Commission the opportunity to keep the peoples of Africa, for which it was established, and others concerned with the promotion and protection of human rights in Africa, informed of its internal dynamics and programmes of action undertaken and/or yet to be undertaken.

Recommendations
1. ACHPR/Recom.1(III)88: RECOMMENDATION ON THE HEADQUARTERS OF THE AFRICAN COMMISSION ON HUMAN AND PEOPLES’ RIGHTS

The African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights, meeting at its Third Ordinary Session in Libreville, Gabon, from 18 to 28 April 1988;

Recalling that the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights which entered into force on 21 October 1986, established a Commission whose members were elected on 29 July, 1987 by the OAU Assembly of Heads of State and Government and which held its First Session in Addis Ababa;

Noting that the Charter does not contain any formal provision indicating that the Headquarters of the Commission be established at the Headquarters of the OAU;

Noting indeed that Article 30 of the Charter specifies only that an African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights is established within the OAU, charged with promoting human and peoples’ rights and ensuring their protection in Africa;

Noting also that Article 64 of the Charter stipulates that the OAU Secretary-General will convene the first meeting of the Commission at the Headquarters of the Organisation and that subsequently the Commission will be convened whenever necessary and at least once every year by its Chairman;

Bearing in mind the quasi-legislative nature of the Commission and its need for a full-time Secretariat, it is not desirable to have the Headquarters of the Commission where the political and administrative organs of the OAU are located;

Convinced that the Headquarters of the Commission can only be hosted by a State which has ratified the Charter and which offers to the Commission substantial material and human resource facilities for its establishment, work and research;

1. RECOMMENDS to the OAU Assembly of Heads of State and Government to establish the Headquarters of the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights in a country other than the one hosting the political and administrative organs of the OAU;

2. RECOMMENDS ALSO to the Assembly of Heads of State and Government to choose, in order to establish the Headquarters of the Commission, a country which has ratified the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights and which offers to the Commission substantial material and human resource facilities for its establishment, work and research.
2. ACHPR/Recom 2(III)88: RECOMMENDATION ON THE FINANCIAL RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE FUNCTIONING OF THE AFRICAN COMMISSION ON HUMAN AND PEOPLES’ RIGHTS

The African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights, meeting at its Third Ordinary Session in Libreville, Gabon, from 18 to 28 April 1988;

Considering that the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights adopted in Nairobi on 28 June 1981, entered into force on 21 October 1986, and that members of the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights set up to apply it, were elected on 29 July 1987, and installed on 2 November 1987;

Reaffirming their duty to ensure the promotion and protection of human and peoples’ rights and freedoms, duly taking into account, the primordial importance traditionally attached to these rights and freedoms in Africa;

Conscious of the fundamental role of the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights to assist States Parties to the African Charter of Human and Peoples’ Rights in the promotion and protection of human and peoples’ rights and freedoms;

HAS AGREED THAT:

1. The Financial Rules and Regulations of the OAU dated 4 March 1979, apply to the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights, without prejudice to the following rules;

2. The Organisation of African Unity shall bear the financial cost of the Commission, pursuant to the relevant provisions of the OAU Charter and of the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights, Article 41 of which stipulates:

“The Secretary-General of the Organisation of African Unity shall appoint the Secretary of the Commission. He shall provide the staff and services necessary for the effective discharge of the duties of the Commission. The Organisation of African Unity shall bear the cost of the staff and services.”

And Article 44 of which stipulates:

“Provision shall be made for the emoluments and allowances of the members of the Commission in the Regular Budget of the Organisation of African Unity”.

3. The Commission’s budget shall form part of the Regular Budget of the Organisation of African Unity, but this budget shall be distinct and managed separately.

The Secretary-General of the OAU shall be the Accounting Officer and, in this capacity, shall be responsible for its management. He may however delegate all or part of his powers to the Chairman of the Commission for application of the financial rules and regulations of the OAU and the relevant provisions of the Rules of Procedure of the Commission.

The Accountant of the OAU shall be responsible for keeping the accounts. He shall be responsible for receiving financial resources and making relevant payments. He may, following the exigencies of the service, delegate all or part of his powers to a staff member of the Secretariat of the Commission, in consultation with the Commission.

4. The Secretary-General of the OAU shall prepare and submit for consideration to the Advisory Committee on Administrative, Budgetary and Financial Matters, the OAU Programme of Action which shall include the programme of action of the Commission and the budgetary appropriations including those of the Commission.

5. The following are expenditure codes necessary for the effective execution of the tasks assigned to the Commission pursuant to the provisions of Article 27 of the Financial Rules and Regulations of the OAU, to cover:

- the emoluments and allowances for the members of the Commission, as provided for in Article 44 of the Charter;
- staff costs of the Secretariat of the Commission;
- cost of facilities and activities of the Commission.

As regards additional resources to the financial contribution of the OAU to the Commission, the latter may accept in consultation with the OAU Secretary-General, grants, bequests and other donations compatible with the objectives of the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights.

If the budgetary appropriations of the Commission have not been approved or are inadequate or if new expenses are to be incurred as a result of financial implications of approved decisions after the Regular Budget of the OAU had been adopted, the Secretary-General of the OAU shall, in consultation with the Commission, submit to the Advisory Committee or sub-Advisory Committee, a rectified additional programme and budget for consideration. He shall subsequently submit the same to the Council of Ministers for approval. This would enable the Commission to carry out its task effectively.

The Secretary-General may also identify new financial sources by drawing from the overall balances available under some codes after the normal closing of the financial year.

If the budgetary estimates of the Commission are not adopted before 1 June, one-twelfth of the previous budget shall be released in accordance with Article 34 of the OAU Financial Rules and Regulations.
3. ACHPR/Recom.3(III)88: RECOMMENDATION ON PERIODIC REPORTS

The African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights, meeting at its Third Ordinary Session in Libreville, Gabon, from 18 to 28 April 1988;

Having carefully examined the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights and, particularly, its Article 62 which stipulates:

> “Each State Party shall undertake to submit every two years, from the date the present Charter comes into force, a report on the legislative or other measures taken with a view to giving effect to the rights and freedoms recognised and guaranteed by the present Charter”,

Considering that this provision of the Charter contains only the obligation which is that of a State Party to submit the report;

Considering that the Charter does not stipulate to which authority or body the periodic report should be directed;

Considering that the Charter has not specifically entrusted to the Commission with the responsibility to consider the periodic reports on Human Rights;

Considering further that it is difficult to see which other organ of the OAU could accomplish this work;

Considering that the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights is the only appropriate organ of the OAU capable not only of studying the said periodic reports, but also of making pertinent observations to States Parties, after providing them with general guidelines on the form and contents of the reports which they should submit, pursuant to Article 62 referred to above:

RECOMMENDS that the Assembly of Heads of State and Government:

1. Mandate the General Secretariat of the OAU to receive the said reports and communicate them to the Commission without delay;

2. Specifically entrust it with the task of examining the periodic reports submitted by the States Parties pursuant to Article 62 and other relevant provisions of the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights;

3. Authorise it to give the States Parties general guidelines on the form and the contents of the said periodic reports.
ACHPR Recommendations and Resolutions

4.ACHPR/Recom.4(V)89: RECOMMENDATION ON MODALITIES FOR PROMOTING HUMAN AND PEOPLES’ RIGHTS

The African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights, meeting at its Fifth Ordinary Session in Benghazi, Libya, from 3 to 14 April 1989;

Taking into account Resolution AHG/Res.176 (XXIV) adopted by the Twenty-fourth Ordinary Session of the Assembly of Heads of State and Government held in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in May 1988, approving the Activity Report of the Commission, its programme and the attached recommendations:

RECOMMENDS that the Assembly of Heads of State and Government of the OAU adopt the following recommendations:

“The Assembly of Heads of State and Government of the OAU meeting …..

Recalling that the African States “firmly convinced of their duty to ensure the promotion and protection of human and peoples’ rights and freedoms, duly taking into account the primary importance traditionally attached to these rights and freedoms in Africa” adopted in Nairobi on 28 June 1981, the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights which came into force on 21 October 1986;

Taking into account Resolution AHG/Res. 176 (XXIV) adopted by the 24th Ordinary Session of the Assembly of Heads of State and Government held in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in May 1988, approving the Activity Report of the Commission, its programmes and the attached recommendations;

Aware of the fact that ignorance is the main obstacle to the respect for human and peoples’ rights and that consequently it is necessary to promote the knowledge and the science of these rights and freedoms in the interest of the African people pursuant to Article 45 paragraph 1 (a) of the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights:

RECOMMENDS that African States parties to the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights:

(i) introduce the teaching of human and peoples’ rights at all levels of their educational systems (higher, secondary, primary, general, technical, professional, etc.);

(ii) periodically broadcast, with the help of the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights, radio and television programmes on human rights in Africa;

(iii) establish national and regional institutes of human and peoples’ rights responsible for conducting studies and researches in co-operation with the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights, and for disseminating the knowledge and information on human and peoples’ rights.
5. ACHPR/Recom.5(EXT.1)89: RECOMMENDATION OF THE COMMISSION ON HUMAN AND PEOPLES’ RIGHTS

The African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights, meeting at its First Extraordinary Session in Banjul, The Gambia, on 13 and 14 June 1989;

Considering that by its Resolution AHG/Res. 176 (XXIV), the Twenty-fourth Ordinary Session of the Assembly of Heads of State and Government reaffirmed its determination to ensure the promotion and protection of human and peoples’ rights in Africa,

Recalling the autonomous nature and the specific role of the Assembly of Heads of State and Government meeting in its Twenty-fourth Ordinary Session had conferred on the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights by adopting the specific financial rules and regulations of the Commission,

Considering that the appropriations voted for the Commission under the 1989/90 budget are inadequate for the realisation of the task assigned to the Commission by the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights,

Considering that the components of the emoluments approved for the members of the Commission are not commensurate with their actual responsibilities,

Considering that the Commission has no administrative staff to carry out human rights promotion and protection tasks as assigned to it by the Charter and that, pending the next financial year’s allocations, it is urgent to provide the Commission with:
- a legal officer responsible for matters relating to human rights promotion;
- a legal officer responsible for human rights protection;
- a documentalist;
- a French/English translator,

1. REAFFIRMS the commitment of the Members of the Commission to do everything possible to carry out missions assigned to them by the Charter;

2. PROPOSES that the emoluments of the Members of the Commission now fixed at US$250 for each day of meeting be raised to US$300;

3. REQUESTS the Assembly of Heads of State and Government to grant the Commission an additional budget, until the next financial year, to enable it to carry out successfully its human rights promotion activities and to appoint the staff needed for the realisation of the above-mentioned promotion and protection task.

Resolutions adopted during the 5th – 16th Ordinary Sessions

1. ACHPR/Res.1 (V) 89: RESOLUTION ON THE CELEBRATION OF AN AFRICAN DAY OF HUMAN RIGHTS

The African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights, meeting at its Fifth Ordinary Session from 3-14 April 1989, in Benghazi, Libya;

Recalling that the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights, adopted by the 18th Assembly of Heads of State and Government, in June 1981, in Nairobi (Kenya), entered into force on 21 October, 1986, in accordance with the provisions of its Article 63;

Recalling that, as a safeguard measure, the Charter established an African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights, under the provisions of the Article 30, which was seated on 2 November 1987, after the election of its members, in July, 1982;

Considering that the United Nations Organisation which has always endeavoured to establish regional arrangements for the promotion and protection of human rights, has welcomed the adoption of the Charter and its entry into force;

Considering that the UNO has always encouraged the celebration of anniversaries in the field of human rights,

Conscious of the fact that these celebrations make it possible to widely disseminate the regional or international instruments, and the human rights and fundamental liberties they proclaim, and revive interest in these rights and liberties as well as promote a better awareness thereof;

Convinced that the celebration of the anniversary of the coming into force of the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights would involve the peoples of the world in general and the African peoples in particular in the activities of the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights in the field of human and peoples’ rights, as well as at the level of the African community in particular, the actual exercise and enjoyment of human and peoples’ rights and of the basic freedoms:

INVITES the OAU Member States and all organisations concerned to adopt the 21st of October of every year as an African Day of Human Rights:

- to celebrate on that Day the coming into force of the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights;
- to intensify their efforts to enable Africa to achieve new progress in that field.
2.ACHPR/Res.2(V)89: RESOLUTION ON THE ESTABLISHMENT OF COMMITTEES ON HUMAN RIGHTS OR OTHER SIMILAR ORGANS AT NATIONAL, REGIONAL OR SUB-REGIONAL LEVELS

The African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights, meeting at its Fifth Ordinary Session from 3-14 April 1989, in Benghazi, Libya;

Considering that the establishment of Committees on Human Rights or other similar organs at the national, regional or sub-regional level, as means by which to ensure respect for and as wide a promotion as possible of human rights has always been of interest to the various organs of the United Nations since the setting up of the Organisation;

Considering in particular Resolution 33/46 of 14 December, 1978, adopted by the UN General Assembly, and Resolution 24 (XXXV) of 14 March, 1979, adopted by the Human Rights Commission, which approved the guiding principles advocated by the Seminar, held in Geneva on 18 and 19 September, 1978, as regards national or local institutions for the promotion and protection of human rights;

Considering that it is desirable that the mission aimed at promoting human and peoples’ rights sent by the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights, by virtue of its Charter, under Article 45, would be carried out through the assistance and support of national and regional committees established for that purpose, and composed of eminent personalities, which should also help governments solve their national or local problems relevant to human rights, thus promoting a better awareness of issues related to human rights:

1. INVITES all the States, parties to the Charter, where no national institutions as yet exist for the promotion and protection of human rights, to take appropriate measures to establish such institutions;

2. CALLS ON THE STATES, parties to the Charter, to take due account, when establishing national institutions, of those guiding principles, in planning their structure and functioning, born of the Seminar on national and local institutions for the promotion and protection of human rights, held in Geneva from 18 to 29 September 1978;

3. REQUESTS the OAU Secretary General to submit a detailed report on existing national institutions.
3. ACHPR/Res.3(V)89: RESOLUTION ON THE INTEGRATION OF THE PROVISIONS OF THE AFRICAN CHARTER ON HUMAN AND PEOPLES’ RIGHTS INTO NATIONAL LAWS OF STATES

The African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights, meeting at its Fifth Ordinary Session in Benghazi, Libya from 3 to 14 April 1989.

Considering that its mission to promote human and peoples’ rights includes the promotion and formulation of principles and rules which will enable the African States to solve their legal problems relating to the enjoyment of human and peoples’ rights and fundamental freedoms in conformity with Article 45, paragraph 1, sub-paragraph (b) of the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights;

Bearing in mind the fact that the reception of international law is not uniform in all States Parties:

REQUESTS the Assembly of Heads of State and Government to adopt the following recommendation:

“The Assembly of Heads of State and Government, meeting ..........

Recalling that African States solemnly declared in the OAU Charter, their duty to unite by harmonising their general policies and ensuring the well-being of their peoples, by furthering the legitimate aspirations to freedom, equality, justice and dignity;

Bearing in mind Resolution AHG/Res. 176 (XXIV) adopted by the Assembly of Heads of State and Government of the OAU at its Twenty-fourth Ordinary Session in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in May 1988 approving the Commission’s Activity Report, its programme and recommendations appended;

RECOMMENDS that Member States of the OAU, parties to the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights;

INTRODUCE the provisions of Articles 1 to 29 of the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights in their Constitutions, laws, rules and regulations and other acts relating to human and peoples’ rights.”

4. ACHPR/Res.4(XI)92: RESOLUTION ON THE RIGHT TO RECOUSE AND FAIR TRIAL

The African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights, meeting at its Eleventh Ordinary Session, in Tunis Tunisia, from 2 to 9 March 1992;

Conscious of the fact that the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights is designed to promote and protect human rights in accordance with the provisions contained in the Charter and recognised international human rights standards;

Recognising that the right to a fair trial is essential for the protection of fundamental human rights and freedoms;

Bearing in mind that article 7 of the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ rights;

Recalling the condemnation of the 22 July 1994 coup d’État in The Gambia by the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights and the international community and the consequence of the military coup d’État on the principles of democracy and the rule of law,

Noting with concern the consequences of the proliferation of mines in African countries, particularly the failure of efforts of rehabilitation in the affected areas and of reconstruction, in countries which emerged from wars,

Considering that this phenomenon constitutes a flagrant violation of the provisions of the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights and, more specifically, of its article 4,

Further considering that one of the most adequate means to combat this calamity would be the extension of the 1980 United Nations Convention to situations of internal conflicts and, the adoption of effective provisions for the implementation of this Convention particularly aiming at the prohibition or restrictions on the use of mines;

Recognising the importance of the NGOs in highlighting public awareness and the need to strengthen their capacity in assisting mine victims:

The African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights meeting at its Seventeenth Ordinary Session held from 13 to 22 March 1995, Lomé, Togo;

Guided by the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights and, in particular, Article 45 of the Charter which defines the mandate of the Commission,

Considering that the rights established and guaranteed under the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights extend to all categories of persons including prisoners, detainees and other persons deprived of their liberty,

Considering also the leading role played by African States in the establishment of international norms and standards for the protection of human rights of prisoners including the Convention Against Torture and other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment and the United Nations Standard Minimum Rules for the Treatment of Prisoners, among others, and that an overwhelming majority of the States Parties to the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights subscribe to the principles and rules contained in these international norms and standards,

Aware of Resolution 1984/87 of the United Nations Economic and Social Council which requests States to “inform the Secretary-General of the United Nations every five years of the progress made with the application of the Standard Minimum Rules for the Treatment of Prisoners and of the factors and difficulties, if any, affecting their implementation”, Conscious that States assume responsibilities to look after the welfare of persons who have been deprived for their liberty including prisoners and detainees,

Recalling the Abuja Agreement signed by all the parties to the Liberian conflict under which the Heads of the Warring Factions were allocated seats on the Governing Council of State in the hope that such an arrangement would facilitate and ensure disarmament of their fighters, a prerequisite for free and fair elections,

Taking note that the Council of State of the Liberian Transitional Government, created in pursuance of the Abuja Agreement, has been installed into office and that the government, including the judiciary and the legislature has been freely constituted and is now functional,

Considering however, that notwithstanding the establishment of the Council of State, the Warring Factions have refused to disarm, and that Liberia, contrary to the Abuja Agreement, still remains fragmented and partitioned among warring factions, and hostilities still exist, all of which have the potential to derail the peace process and prolong the suffering of the Liberian people and the strain on the West African sub-region,

Considering further that if peace is to be restored to Liberia, a civil government installed through a free and fair elections, and democratic institutions established with respect for human rights and the rule of law, Liberians themselves, and with the support of the international community, must exert efforts to cease all hostilities, disarm their combatants, have them encamped, demobilised and re-integrated into civil society,

Calls upon the Warring Factions to take all necessary steps to disarm their fighters, co-operate with the West African Peace Keeping Forces (ECOMOG) and the United Nations Observer Mission to Liberia (UNOMIL) and have fighters encamped, demobilised and re-integrated into civil society so as to pave the way for a free and fair general elections,

Further calls upon the Council of State to take all necessary measures to fight against impunity and ensure that all perpetrators of crimes against the Liberian people are brought to justice,

Appeals to the international community, especially the United Nations, to facilitate Liberia’s transition from war to peace by enhancing the capacity of the West African Peace Keeping Force to encamp all combatants and to keep the peace through the provision of financial and logistic support; and to alleviate the suffering and the daily struggle of the Liberian people for survival through the provision of humanitarian relief and medical supplies.

The African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights, meeting at its Nineteenth Ordinary Session held from 26 March to 4 April 1996 in Ouagadougou, Burkina Faso;

ACHPR / Res.30 (XXIV)98: RESOLUTION ON THE CO-OPERATION BETWEEN THE AFRICAN COMMISSION ON HUMAN AND PEOPLES’ RIGHTS AND NGOs HAVING OBSERVER STATUS WITH THE COMMISSION

BACKGROUND

1. Article 45 of the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights sets out the mandate of the Commission as follows:

i) to promote human rights;
ii) to protect human rights;
iii) to interpret provisions of the African Charter;
iv) any other tasks that may be referred to the Commission by the OAU.

2. In the performance of its tasks and to enhance its efficiency, the Charter also makes provision for the Commission to work with other partners in the field of human rights. Article 45 (1) (c) of the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights provides that the Commission shall co-operate with other African and International Institutions concerned with the promotion and protection of human and peoples’ rights. In accordance with this article, the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights has since its inception granted observer status to 231 human rights NGOs.

3. The granting of this status enables the NGOs to participate directly in the Commission’s activities. Rules 75 and 76 of the Rules of Procedure of the African Commission ensure this participation in the Commission’s Sessions by requesting the Secretary to the Commission to inform all NGOs with observer status of the days and agenda of the forthcoming Session, at least four weeks before the Session. NGOs with observer status can then authorize their representatives to attend and participate in the public Sessions of the Commission and its subsidiary bodies. Participation can be in either written or oral forms.

4. Apart from participating in the sessions, all documents such as final communiqués of the session and other relevant documents have to be sent by the Secretariat to all NGOs with observer status.

5. Another benefit enjoyed by NGOs with observer status is the preparation of ‘shadow’ reports on the human rights situation in their countries. These ‘shadow’ reports enable the Commission to have a constructive dialogue with a State representative when that country’s periodic report is being considered.

6. During its 11th Ordinary Session held in Tunis, Tunisia, the Commission reiterated its desire to co-operate with NGOs in the promotion and protection of human and peoples’ rights on the continent. In order to encourage and ensure reciprocal commitment on the part of its NGO partners, it was decided that all NGOs that have observer status with the Commission should submit their activity reports once every two (2) years from the date the said status was granted.

7. The Commission’s readiness to co-operate with national, regional and international Human Rights NGOs is further emphasized, and its importance stressed in the Mauritius Plan of Action 1996 - 2001, which was adopted at the Commission’s 20th Ordinary Session. The said Plan proposes the creation of an exchange and communication network, especially with regards to NGOs operating in Africa, to establish an appropriate mechanism for promotional and protective activities in Africa. This network is intended to enhance co-operation amongst NGOs and the Commission concurrently.

8. The present status of submission of the activity reports of NGOs in compliance with the decision taken at the 11th Ordinary Session of the Commission leaves much to be desired. Out of 231 NGOs that had been granted observer status by October 1998, 197 were expected to have submitted all due and overdue reports. Out of this number, only 26 have submitted all their reports up to date, 48 have submitted some of the reports and 114 have submitted none at all. This clearly shows the extent of the lack of commitment on the part of these NGOs.

9. It is also clear that the Commission continues granting observer status to NGOs, while it is not adequately informed by most of them about what work they are doing in the sphere of human rights or how they are helping to promote and/or protect human rights in Africa. The very essence of having NGOs as partners in creating a culture of recognition of and respect for human rights on the African continent is thereby betrayed.

10. Note must also be taken of the fact that some of these NGOs on occasion, have been found to use their granted status to raise funds which is sometimes totally misused, or is used for purposes other than the promotion and protection of human rights. The fear, therefore, that some of them may have either changed their mandate or shifted their focus to issues other than human rights becomes legitimate.

11. To address this situation, it is hereby recommended that the Commission revise its criteria for granting and enjoying observer status.

12. The Conference of the Heads of States and Governments of the Organization of Africa (OAU), as its Thirty-Fourth Ordinary Session [AHG/Dec. 126 (XXXIV) para. 3], requested the African Commission to review its criteria for granting and enjoying observer status to NGOs.

Therefore,

The African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights, meeting at its Twenty-Fourth Ordinary Session from 22 to 31 October 1998, in Banjul, The Gambia,

Recalling that the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights, which entered into force on 21 October 1986, mandates the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights under Article 45 (1)(c) to co-operate with other African national and international institutions concerned with the promotion and protection of human and peoples’ rights;

Recalling further its decision taken during its Second Ordinary Session held in Dakar, Senegal, in February 1988, to grant observer status to NGOs working in the field of human rights in Africa;

Also recalling Rules 75 and 76 of the Commission’s Rules of Procedure which further emphasise this co-operation;
Aware of the Mauritius Plan of Action which emphasises the importance of co-operation with NGOs,

Convinced that such co-operation will provide NGOs with the support and opportunity to work closely with the Commission, and recognising the invaluable role institutions such as NGOs can play in the enhancement of human rights in Africa;

Further convinced that for any meaningful co-operation to take place, there has to be commitment and reciprocity on the part of all parties;

Bearing in mind the decision taken at its 11th Ordinary Session requiring all NGOs having observer status to submit their activity reports to the Commission at least once every two years;

Convinced that the submission of activity reports by NGOs is a way of enhancing the protection of human rights, and the co-operation between the Commission and NGOs;

Firmly convinced that the said reports can be very invaluable not only to the Commission, but also to the ever increasing number of human rights workers around the world;

Considering the request of the Conference of Heads of State and Government of the OAU to review the criteria for granting observer status to NGOs;

EXPRESSES its profound appreciation to those NGOs which have submitted their reports regularly;

NOTES WITH CONCERN the fact that the majority of NGOs whose reports are due have not submitted their reports, and have ceased communicating with the Commission;

DECIDES that representatives of NGOs that have applied for observer status should be present to be interviewed during the consideration of their application;

DECIDES ALSO to review, in conformity with the Decision AHG/Dec.126 (XXXIV) by the Conference of the Heads of State and Government, the criteria for obtaining and enjoying observer status with the Commission;

INVITES NGOs which have observer status with the Commission but which have not yet submitted their overdue reports, to do so before the 27th Ordinary Session of the Commission.

DECIDES FINALLY to revoke observer status of any NGO that does not submit any activity report at the 27th Ordinary Session.

REQUESTS the Secretary to the Commission to submit a report on the implementation of this resolution at each Session.
31. ACHPR/Res.31 (XXIV)98: RESOLUTION ON GRANTING OBSERVER STATUS TO NATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS INSTITUTIONS IN AFRICA

BACKGROUND

"their adherence to the principles of human and peoples' rights and freedoms contained in the declarations, conventions and other instruments adopted by the Organization of African Unity, the Movement of Non-Aligned Countries and United Nations."

In the same preamble, African Countries pledged to "...coordinate and intensify their cooperation and efforts to achieve a better life for the peoples of Africa and to promote international cooperation having due regard to the Charter of the United Nations and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights."

With the aim of concretizing this commitment, Article 26 of the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights stipulates that:

"States Parties to the present Charter shall have the duty to guarantee the independence of the Courts and shall allow the establishment and improvement of appropriate national institutions entrusted with the promotion and protection of the rights and freedoms guaranteed by the present Charter."

The use of the word "allow" suggests not just encouraging and promoting the establishment of National Institutions but also developing a mutually cooperative relationship in order to "promote and ensure, through teaching, education and publication, respect for the rights and freedoms contained in the present charter …” (Article 25).

National Institutions, therefore, are an essential partner in the implementation of the Charter at National Level. It is noted that the Mauritius Plan of Action (1996-2001) envisages workshops on national institutions as one of its promotion activities. It also seeks the cooperation of national institutions in fulfilling its mandate of promoting and protecting human and peoples’ rights.

Finally, the 2nd Seminar of Ambassadors of African States to the OAU held in Addis Ababa from 8 to 9 September 1998, recognized the importance of National Institutions and urged Governments to accord them appropriate support.

African States in general and the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights in particular took an active part in the deliberations of the World Conference on Human Rights which was held in Vienna in June 1993. The Vienna Conference's Declaration and Programme of Action reaffirmed:

"the important and constructive role played by national institutions for the promotion and protection of Human Rights, in particular in their advisory role to the competent authorities, their role at remedying human rights violations, in the dissemination of information and education in human rights."
The World Conference on Human Rights also encouraged:

"the establishment and strengthening of national institutions..." and recognized "... that it is the right of each State to choose the framework which is best suited to its particular needs at the national level..."

At this Conference a formal status was granted to the International Committee for Coordination of National Institutions as a statutory liaison instrument of the United Nations system. This Committee shall organize a biennial world meeting of national institutions.

The objective of these principles is to guarantee the independence of national institutions in their work and pluralism in their composition. The central mission of national institutions is to play an advisory role to the government, parliament and other relevant bodies and authorities involved in giving opinion and making recommendations on all issues related to the promotion and protection of human rights.

In Africa, the trend to establish national institutions has continued to develop especially after 1991. At present, Africa has more than twenty (20) national human rights institutions which are represented in the International Coordination Committee by Cameroon, Morocco, South Africa and Togo.

At the first conference of national human rights institutions in Africa held in Yaounde, Cameroon, from 5 to 7 February 1996, participants adopted the Yaounde Declaration which commended "...the creation of new National Institutions in Africa..." and expressed the hope that these institutions will be given "... a proper representative status on the African Commission." At the 2nd Conference of African National Institutions held in Durban from 1 to 3 July 1998, the need for a clear relationship and a unique status in the African Commission were reiterated.

Since the Mauritius Session, the issue of African national human rights institutions has always been included on the agenda of meetings of the Commission. A paper on this subject was presented by Commissioner K. Rezag-Bara at the 21st Ordinary Session of the Commission held in Nouakchott, Mauritania in April 1997. The Commission decided at its 22nd Ordinary Session held in Banjul in November 1997 to entrust Commissioners K. Rezag-Bara and N. Barney Pityana with the task of preparing a draft resolution on the advisory status of national institutions in the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights. The matter was deferred for finalization at the 24th Ordinary Session.

Therefore,

The African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights, meeting at its Twenty-Fourth Ordinary Session from 22 to 31 October 1998, in Banjul, The Gambia, Considering the preamble of the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights which reaffirms the adherence of African States to 'human and peoples' rights and freedoms contained in the declarations, conventions and other instruments adopted by the organization of African Unity, the Movement of Non-Aligned countries and the United Nations”;

Considering that Article 26 of the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights stipulates that “States Parties to the present Charter shall have the duty to ... allow the establishment and the improvement of appropriate national institutions entrusted with the promotion and protection of rights”;

Considering the decisions, resolutions, recommendations and the final declaration adopted by the first conference of national human rights institutions in Africa held in Yaounde, Cameroon from 5 to 7 February 1996 and the 2nd Conference held in Durban, South Africa on 1 - 3 July 1998;

Convinced of the importance of the role of national institutions in the promotion and protection of human rights and in creating public awareness in Africa with regard to the institutional defense of human rights;

1. COMMENDS the increasing interests shown by African states in establishing and strengthening national institutions for the protection and promotion of human rights based on the principles of independence and pluralism.

2. RECOGNIZES that it is the right of each state to establish, according to its sovereign prerogatives and within the most appropriate legislative framework, a national institution charged with the promotion and protection of human rights according to internationally recognized norms.

3. NOTES WITH SATISFACTION the significant participation of African National Institutions in the deliberations of the sessions of the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights and registers positively the wish expressed by several institutions to be granted an observer status with the Commission.

4. DECIDES to grant special observer status to any African national institution established in Africa and functioning according to internationally recognized norms and standards.

(a) that the following criteria for the status of affiliated institution shall apply:

- the national institution should be duly established by law, constitution or by decree;
- that it shall be a national institution of a state party to the African Charter;
- that the national institution should conform to the Principles relating to the Status of National Institutions, also known as the Paris Principles, adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations under Resolution 48/144 of 20 December 1993.
- that a National Institution shall formally apply for status in the African Commission.

(b) that such institutions shall have the following rights and responsibilities.
• be invited to sessions of the African Commission according to rule 6 of the Rules and Procedures,
• be represented in public sessions of the Commission and its subsidiary bodies,
• participate, without voting rights, in deliberations on issues which are of interest to them and to submit proposals which may be put to the vote at the request of any member of the Commission.

(c) that any national institution shall be required to submit reports to the Commission every two years on its activities in the promotion and protection of the rights enshrined in the Charter and;

(d) that the National Institution will assist the Commission in the promotion and protection of human rights at national level.
32. ACHPR/Res.32(XXIV)98: RESOLUTION ON THE PEACE PROCESS IN GUINEA BISSAU

Concerned by the situation prevailing in Guinea Bissau and especially by the numerous violations of human rights resulting from the situation of war (conflict) in this country since June 1998,

Noting with satisfaction the favourable evolution of the conflict towards direct dialogue between the belligerents,

RECOGNIZES the efforts initiated by the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) and the Portuguese speaking countries community (PSCC) in order to find a peaceful settlement of the Guinea Bissau conflict,

COMMENDS the continuation of negotiations between parties to the conflict and pays tribute to H.E. Colonel (Rtd) Yahya Jammeh, President of the Republic of the Gambia for his mediation,

EXPRESSES ITS SUPPORT to the ongoing peace process and calls on parties to the conflict and Member States of the ECOWAS and PSCC to take necessary measures to ensure restoration of peace in Guinea Bissau.

Reaffirming Article 9 of the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights;

Desiring to promote the free flow of information and ideas and greater respect for freedom of expression;

Convinced that respect for freedom of expression, as well as the right of access to information held by public bodies and companies, will lead to greater public transparency and accountability, as well as to good governance and the strengthening of democracy;

Convinced that laws and customs that repress freedom of expression are a disservice to society;
Recalling that freedom of expression is a fundamental human right guaranteed by the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, as well as other international documents and national constitutions;

Considering the key role of the media and other means of communication in ensuring full respect for freedom of expression, in promoting the free flow of information and ideas, in assisting people to make informed decisions and in facilitating and strengthening democracy;

Aware of the particular importance of the broadcast media in Africa, given its capacity to reach a wide audience due to the comparatively low cost of receiving transmissions and its ability to overcome barriers of illiteracy;

Noting that oral traditions, which are rooted in African cultures, lend themselves particularly well to radio broadcasting;

Noting the important contribution that can be made to the realisation of the right to freedom of expression by new information and communication technologies;

Mindful of the evolving human rights and human development environment in Africa, especially in light of the adoption of the Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights on the establishment of an African Court on Human and Peoples’ Rights, the principles of the Constitutive Act of the African Union, 2000, as well as the significance of the human rights and good governance provisions in the New Partnership for Africa’s Development (NEPAD); and

Recognising the need to ensure the right to freedom of expression in Africa, the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights declares that:

I

The Guarantee of Freedom of Expression

1. Freedom of expression and information, including the right to seek, receive and impart information and ideas, either orally, in writing or in print, in the form of art, or through any other form of communication, including across frontiers, is a fundamental and inalienable human right and an indispensable component of democracy.

2. Everyone shall have an equal opportunity to exercise the right to freedom of expression and to access information without discrimination.

II

Interference with Freedom of Expression

1. No one shall be subject to arbitrary interference with his or her freedom of expression.

2. Any restrictions on freedom of expression shall be provided by law, serve a legitimate interest and be necessary and in a democratic society.
III

Diversity

Freedom of expression imposes an obligation on the authorities to take positive measures to promote diversity, which include among other things:

- availability and promotion of a range of information and ideas to the public;
- pluralistic access to the media and other means of communication, including by vulnerable or marginalized groups, such as women, children and refugees, as well as linguistic and cultural groups;
- the promotion and protection of African voices, including through media in local languages; and
- the promotion of the use of local languages in public affairs, including in the courts.

IV

Freedom of Information

1. Public bodies hold information not for themselves but as custodians of the public good and everyone has a right to access this information, subject only to clearly defined rules established by law.

2. The right to information shall be guaranteed by law in accordance with the following principles:

   - everyone has the right to access information held by public bodies;
   - everyone has the right to access information held by private bodies which is necessary for the exercise or protection of any right;
   - any refusal to disclose information shall be subject to appeal to an independent body and/or the courts;
   - public bodies shall be required, even in the absence of a request, actively to publish important information of significant public interest;
   - no one shall be subject to any sanction for releasing in good faith information on wrongdoing, or that which would disclose a serious threat to health, safety or the environment save where the imposition of sanctions serves a legitimate interest and is necessary in a democratic society; and
   - secrecy laws shall be amended as necessary to comply with freedom of information principles.

3. Everyone has the right to access and update or otherwise correct their personal information, whether it is held by public or by private bodies.

V

Private Broadcasting

1. States shall encourage a diverse, independent private broadcasting sector. A State monopoly over broadcasting is not compatible with the right to freedom of expression.

2. The broadcast regulatory system shall encourage private and community broadcasting in accordance with the following principles:

   - there shall be equitable allocation of frequencies between private broadcasting uses, both commercial and community;
an independent regulatory body shall be responsible for issuing broadcasting licences and for ensuring observance of licence conditions; licensing processes shall be fair and transparent, and shall seek to promote diversity in broadcasting; and community broadcasting shall be promoted given its potential to broaden access by poor and rural communities to the airwaves.

VI

Public Broadcasting

State and government controlled broadcasters should be transformed into public service broadcasters, accountable to the public through the legislature rather than the government, in accordance with the following principles:

- public broadcasters should be governed by a board which is protected against interference, particularly of a political or economic nature;
- the editorial independence of public service broadcasters should be guaranteed;
- public broadcasters should be adequately funded in a manner that protects them from arbitrary interference with their budgets;
- public broadcasters should strive to ensure that their transmission system covers the whole territory of the country; and

VII

Regulatory Bodies for Broadcast and Telecommunications

1. Any public authority that exercises powers in the areas of broadcast or telecommunications regulation should be independent and adequately protected against interference, particularly of a political or economic nature.

2. The appointments process for members of a regulatory body should be open and transparent, involve the participation of civil society, and shall not be controlled by any particular political party.

3. Any public authority that exercises powers in the areas of broadcast or telecommunications should be formally accountable to the public through a multi-party body.

VIII

Print Media

1. Any registration system for the print media shall not impose substantive restrictions on the right to freedom of expression.

2. Any print media published by a public authority should be protected adequately against undue political interference.

3. Efforts should be made to increase the scope of circulation of the print media, particularly to rural communities.
4. Media owners and media professionals shall be encouraged to reach agreements to guarantee editorial independence and to prevent commercial considerations from unduly influencing media content.

IX
Complaints

1. A public complaints system for print or broadcasting should be available in accordance with the following principles:
   - complaints shall be determined in accordance with established rules and codes of conduct agreed between all stakeholders; and
   - the complaints system shall be widely accessible.
2. Any regulatory body established to hear complaints about media content, including media councils, shall be protected against political, economic or any other undue interference. Its powers shall be administrative in nature and it shall not seek to usurp the role of the courts.
3. Effective self-regulation is the best system for promoting high standards in the media.

X
Promoting Professionalism

1. Media practitioners shall be free to organise themselves into unions and associations.
2. The right to express oneself through the media by practising journalism shall not be subject to undue legal restrictions.

XI
Attacks on Media Practitioners

1. Attacks such as the murder, kidnapping, intimidation of and threats to media practitioners and others exercising their right to freedom of expression, as well as the material destruction of communications facilities, undermines independent journalism, freedom of expression and the free flow of information to the public.
2. States are under an obligation to take effective measures to prevent such attacks and, when they do occur, to investigate them, to punish perpetrators and to ensure that victims have access to effective remedies.
3. In times of conflict, States shall respect the status of media practitioners as non-combatants.

XII
Protecting Reputations

1. States should ensure that their laws relating to defamation conform to the following standards:
   - no one shall be found liable for true statements, opinions or statements regarding public figures which it was reasonable to make in the circumstances;
   - public figures shall be required to tolerate a greater degree of criticism; and
   - sanctions shall never be so severe as to inhibit the right to freedom of expression, including by others.
2. Privacy laws shall not inhibit the dissemination of information of public interest.
XIII

Criminal Measures

1. States shall review all criminal restrictions on content to ensure that they serve a legitimate interest in a democratic society.
2. Freedom of expression should not be restricted on public order or national security grounds unless there is a real risk of harm to a legitimate interest and there is a close causal link between the risk of harm and the expression.

XIV

Economic Measures

1. States shall promote a general economic environment in which the media can flourish.
2. States shall not use their power over the placement of public advertising as a means to interfere with media content.
3. States should adopt effective measures to avoid undue concentration of media ownership, although such measures shall not be so stringent that they inhibit the development of the media sector as a whole.

XV

Protection of Sources and other journalistic material

Media practitioners shall not be required to reveal confidential sources of information or to disclose other material held for journalistic purposes except in accordance with the following principles:

- the identity of the source is necessary for the investigation or prosecution of a serious crime, or the defence of a person accused of a criminal offence;
- the information or similar information leading to the same result cannot be obtained elsewhere;
- the public interest in disclosure outweighs the harm to freedom of expression; and
- disclosure has been ordered by a court, after a full hearing.

The African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights meeting at its 36th Ordinary Session held from 23rd November to 7th December 2004, in Dakar, Senegal;

Mindful of the fact that the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights recognises and guarantees enjoyment, promotion and the protection of the rights and freedoms of every individual, without distinction of any kind, such as race, ethnic group, colour, sex, language, religion, political or any other opinion, national and social origin, fortune, birth, or other status;

Considering that the African Charter, while guaranteeing the freedom of movement and freedom of residence of every individual within a state subject to being law abiding, recognises that when persecuted, every individual shall have the right to seek and obtain asylum in other countries in accordance with the respective laws of the said countries, and international law,

Conscious of the fact that in spite of the adoption of the 1969 OAU Convention Governing the Specific Aspects of Refugees Problems in Africa, refugees in Africa continue to face untold suffering arising principally from the lack of respect of their basic and fundamental human rights as individuals, inter alia, women, children and the elderly being the most vulnerable among refugees,

Aware also that in the recent past the incidence of conflicts, and in certain cases, natural calamities have forced mass movement of people to seek refuge, thus causing a huge problem of internal displacement of populations within national borders,

Recalling the Memorandum of Understanding signed between the African Commission and the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees on strengthening mutual cooperation in the effective promotion and protection of the human rights of refugees, asylum seekers, returnees and other persons of concern in Africa;

Recalling that the African Commission, during its 34th Ordinary Session designated a focal point on refugees and internally displaced persons, with a limited responsibility of monitoring developments concerning the plight of refugees and internally displaced persons in Africa, while the Commission reviewed its special rapporteur mechanism,

Recalling its decision to establish the position of Special Rapporteur on Refugees, Asylum Seekers and Internally Displaced Persons in Africa at its 35th Ordinary Session held from 21st May to 4 June 2004 in Banjul, The Gambia and decided to designate, for an initial period of two years, Commissioner Bahame Tom Nyanduga, as the Special Rapporteur on Refugees, Asylum Seekers and Internally Displaced Persons in Africa;

Reaffirming the importance of the mechanism of the Special Rapporteur on Refugees, Asylum Seekers and Internally Displaced Persons in Africa;

Noting the numerous problems faced by refugees, asylum seekers and internally displaced persons in Africa and the urgent need to develop appropriate strategies to ensure their protection;
7. Decides that the Special Rapporteur on Refugees, Asylum Seekers and Internally Displaced Persons in Africa shall operate under the following mandate to -:

8. Calls upon Member States to take all necessary measures to ensure the protection of refugees, asylum seekers and internally displaced persons and to include information on measures taken to that effect;

Pretoria Declaration on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights in Africa

In conformity with its mandate under Article 45 of the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights to promote and protect human and peoples’ rights in Africa, the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights in collaboration with the International Centre for Legal Protection of Human Rights (Interights), the Cairo Institute for Human Rights Studies and the Centre for Human Rights, University of Pretoria, held a Seminar on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights in Pretoria, South Africa, from 13 – 17 September 2004. The participants at the workshop, who included members of the African Commission, representatives of 12 African States, civil society organizations, national human rights institutions, academics and representatives of UN organizations and Regional Economic Communities (RECs) adopted the following Statement, which is recommended for consideration and adoption by the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights at its 36th Ordinary Session:

Preamble

Recalling that the African Charter enshrines economic, social and cultural rights, in particular in its Article 14, Article 15, Article 16, Article 17, Article 18, Article 21 and Article 22;

Recognising the existence of regional and international human rights standards that stress the indivisibility, interdependence and universality of all human rights. Among these are the African Charter, the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child, the Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the Declaration on the Right to Development, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and the Convention for the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women;

Recognising also that the objectives and principles of the Constitutive Act include a commitment to the promotion and protection human and peoples’ rights, respect for democratic principles, human rights, the rule of law and good governance and the promotion of social justice to ensure balanced economic development;

Noting that despite the consensus on the indivisibility of human rights, economic, social and cultural rights remain marginalized in their implementation;

Concerned that there is resistance to recognizing economic, social and cultural rights that results in the continued marginalization of these rights, which excludes the majority of Africans from the enjoyment of human rights;

Appreciating the positive impact that information and communication technologies (ICTs) can have on the promotion, protection and realization of economic, social and cultural rights;

Recognising that there are several constraints that preclude the full realisation of economic, social and cultural rights in Africa;
Deeply disturbed by the ongoing and longstanding conflicts in the regions of Africa, which impede the realization of economic, social and cultural rights;

Concerned further by the lack of human security in Africa due to the prevailing conditions of poverty and under-development and the failure to address poverty through development;

Further recognizing the urgent need for human rights, judicial and administrative institutions in Africa to promote human dignity based on equality and to tackle the core human rights issues facing Africans including, food security, sustainable livelihoods, human survival and the prevention of violence;

The participants state that:

1. States Parties to the African Charter on Human and People’s Rights have solemnly undertaken to respect, protect, promote and fulfill all the rights in the Charter including economic, social and cultural rights.

2. By doing so, States Parties have agreed to adopt legislative and other measures, individually or through international cooperation and assistance, to give full effect to the economic, social and cultural rights contained in the African Charter, by using the maximum of their resources. States parties have an obligation to ensure the satisfaction of, at the very least, the minimum essential levels of each of the economic, social and cultural rights contained in the African Charter.

3. States are therefore called upon to address with all appropriate measures their obligations in relation to the full realization of economic, social and cultural rights as well as tackling the following constraints:

   - Failure to enforce some judicial decisions against the state;
• The adverse effects of globalization.

4. States Parties have also undertaken to eliminate all forms of discrimination, including all forms of discrimination against women, and to promote the equal enjoyment of all human rights. Non-discrimination and equal treatment are the key components of economic, social and cultural rights since vulnerable and marginal groups including refugees and internally displaced persons are disproportionately affected by a failure of the state to respect, protect and fulfill these rights.

5. The right to property in Article 14 of the Charter relating to land and housing entails among other things the following:

- Availability of accessible and affordable health facilities, goods and services of reasonable quality for all;
- Access to the minimum essential food which is nutritionally adequate and safe to ensure freedom from hunger to everyone and to prevent malnutrition;
- Access to basic shelter, housing and sanitation and adequate supply of safe and potable water;

- Continued education for teachers and instructors including education on human rights and the continuous improvement of the conditions of work of teaching staff;
- Education for development that links school curricula to the labour market and society’s demands for technology and self-reliance.

9. The right to culture in Articles 17 and 18 of the African Charter entail among other things the following:

- Positive African values consistent with international human rights realities and standards;
- Eradication of harmful traditional practices that negatively affect human rights;
- Participation at all levels in the determination of cultural policies and in cultural and artistic activities;
- Measures for safeguarding, protecting and building awareness of tangible and intangible cultural heritage, including traditional knowledge systems;
- Recognition and respect of the diverse cultures existing in Africa;

10. The social, economic and cultural rights explicitly provided for under the African Charter, read together with other rights in the Charter, such as the right to life and respect for inherent human dignity, imply the recognition of other economic and social rights, including the right to shelter, the right to basic nutrition and the right to social security.

ACHPR/Res.75(XXXVII)05: RESOLUTION ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN TOGO

The African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights meeting at its 37th Ordinary Session held from the 27th of April to the 11th of May 2005 in Banjul, The Gambia;

Recalling that following the death of the late Gnassingbe Eyadema, former President of the Republic of Togo, the country was plunged into a constitutional crisis;

Aware that following concerted efforts of the African Union, the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) and the international community, the authorities in the Republic of Togo accepted to conduct free and fair presidential elections;

Concerned that events in Togo prior, during and after the presidential election were characterized by violence which resulted in the outflow Internally Displaced Persons (IDPs) and of refugees into neighbouring countries, instability and violation of fundamental and basic rights of individuals and citizens in Togo;

Concerned that the presidential election was characterized by irregularities which call to question the integrity of the electoral process and its results, both of which have created conditions for violation of human rights in the wake of the violence and its suppression by government security forces;

Recalling that the current Chairperson of the African Union undertook consultations with some of the Togolese political leaders with a view to promoting respect for the outcome of the elections and the need to establish a government of national unity;

CALLS ON the newly elected President, Faure Gnassingbe, to form a government of national unity as agreed in Abuja on the 25 April 2005;

CALLS ON the Government of Togo to create conducive conditions for the voluntary return of Internally Displaced Persons (IDPs) and the more than 15,000 refugees who have fled to the neighbouring countries in the aftermath of the presidential elections;

DECIDES to send a fact-finding mission to Togo to investigate the violations of human rights which occurred prior, during and after the presidential elections.
The African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights meeting at its 37th Ordinary Session held from the 27th of April to the 11th of May 2005 in Banjul, The Gambia;

Noting that the Protocol on the establishment of an African Court on Human and Peoples’ Rights entered into force on 25 January 2004;

Noting the Decision of July 2004 of the Assembly of Heads of State and Government of the African Union to merge the African Court on Human and Peoples’ Rights with the African Court of Justice of the African Union;

Considering that the two Courts have essentially different mandates and litigants;

Deeply concerned that the July 2004 AU Assembly decision, and the non-ratification by the majority of Member States of the African Union have a negative impact on the establishment of an effective African Court on Human and Peoples’ Rights;

Noting that Decision EX.CL/Dec.165 (VI) of the Executive Council in January 2005 allows the operationalization of the Court notwithstanding the continuing discussions on the merger;

Welcoming the recommendations by the Executive Council of the African Union asking Member States of the AU which have not yet done so to ratify or accede to the Protocol establishing the African Court on Human and Peoples’ Rights as soon as possible;

(i) CALLS ON the Assembly of Heads of State and Government of the African Union to operationalize the African Court on Human and Peoples’ Rights at the earliest through the election of Judges, determination of the seat of the Court and allocation of adequate resources;

Considering Further that African States have recognised the absolute need to take concrete measures to further the implementation of existing provisions on the prohibition of torture and cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, especially as enshrined in Article 5 of the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights, and in the Grand Bay Declaration and Plan of Action adopted by the 1st Ministerial Conference on Human Rights in Africa, on 16 April 1999, in Mauritius,

Noting that Articles 1 and 43 of the Robben Island Guidelines relate to the ratification of regional and international instruments, and invite States to ratify and implement the Optional Protocol to United Nations Convention Against Torture of 18 December 2002,

The African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights (the African Commission), meeting at its 41st Ordinary Session in Accra, Ghana, from 16 to 30 May 2007:-

BEARING IN MIND the rapid rate at which the population of older persons is increasing throughout the world and that the most rapid increase is taking place in the developing world, with Africa alone projected to have between 204 and 210 million older persons by 2050,

RECOGNIZING that, in Africa, the care and support by the family and community that were taken for granted in the past are declining because of changes in society associated with urbanization and development related programmes,

RECALLING the continental efforts to address the challenges resulting from an ageing population in Africa--which started at the 1999 Session of the Organization of African Unity (OAU)'s Labour and Social Affairs Commission held in Windhoek, Namibia,

CONSIDERING the African Union Policy Framework and Plan of Action on Ageing (the African Union Policy Framework), which was first considered and adopted during the 25th Ordinary Session of the OAU Labour and Social Affairs Commission in Ouagadougou, Burkina Faso, in April 2002, and subsequently received final approval during the 38th Ordinary Session of the Assembly of Heads of State and Government in Durban, South Africa,

RECALLING the African Union Policy Framework in which "States Parties recognized the fundamental rights of older persons and committed themselves to abolishing all forms of discrimination based on age" and undertook "to ensure that the rights of older persons are protected by appropriate legislation, including the right to organize themselves in groups and the right to representation in order to advance their interest."

NOTING that the International Plan of Action agreed upon in Madrid, Spain, during the Second World Assembly on Ageing in April 2002, borrowed significantly from the African Union Policy Framework, thereby, outlining the concerns of Africa's older persons,

RECALLING FURTHER that the African Union Member States undertook, inter alia, to ensure that the needs and rights of older persons are integrated into all existing and new policies in all sectors, and to enact legal provisions that promote and strengthen the role of the family and the community in the care of its older members,

CONSIDERING Article 18(4) of the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights which stipulates that: "The aged and the disabled shall also have the right to special measures of protection in keeping with their physical or moral needs,"

FURTHER CONSIDERING Article 22 of the Protocol to the African Charter on the Rights of Women in Africa, which provides for special protection of elderly women and stipulates that “The States Parties undertake to: provide protection to elderly women and take specific measures commensurate with their physical, economic and social needs as well as their access to employment and professional training; ensure the right of elderly women to freedom from violence, including sexual abuse, discrimination based on age, and the right to be treated with dignity,”
HAVING CONSIDERED paragraph 20 of the Kigali Declaration which "calls upon States Parties to develop a Protocol on the protection of the rights of people with disabilities and the elderly,"

CONVINCED that only a Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights on the rights of older persons in Africa ratified by all African Union Member States would ensure compliance of State Parties with the recommendations contained in the AU Policy Framework and Plan of Action on Ageing:

1. REQUESTS the African Union Commission to convene without delay a Committee of Experts composed of Members of the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights, independent experts (from the African Union Member States), and civil society organizations, with the view to drafting a Protocol to the African Charter on the Rights of Older Persons in Africa, bearing in mind all the recommendations made in the 2002 Policy Framework;

3. CALLS UPON the African Union Commission and Member States to convene a diplomatic conference with the view to finalizing the draft Protocol and submit it to the Assembly of Heads of State for consideration;

4. DECIDES to appoint a focal point on the rights of older persons in Africa to follow-up on the implementation of this Resolution.

Recalling the signing, on 16 November 2006, of a Declaration on “Enhancing UN-AU Cooperation Framework for the Ten-Year Capacity Building Programme for the African Union” (the Framework), by H. E. Kofi Annan, former Secretary General of the United Nations, and H. E. Alpha Oumar Konare, Chairperson of the Commission of the African Union,

Noting that the Framework covers all aspects of the cooperation between the UN and the AU, including human rights, the rule of law, and assistance in institution-building,

1. Urges the Secretariat of the United Nations and the Commission of the African Union to take the necessary measures to ensure the operationalization of the Framework;

2. Further Urges the Commission of the African Union to ensure that the operationalization of the Framework addresses the needs of the African Commission in the field of capacity building, and provides it with adequate resources as soon as possible;

DEPLORING the continued human rights and humanitarian crisis caused in the course of the last seventeen (17) years in Somalia by all parties to the conflict,

Recalling the entry into force of the Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa (the Protocol) on 25 November 2005,

Noting that only twenty (20) State Parties to the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights have ratified the Protocol,

Considering the inherent difficulties in implementing the Protocol, notably those regarding its domestication, as well as harmonisation of national laws with its content,

Recalling that Article 14 of the Protocol specifically protects the health and reproductive rights of women;

Concerned that female genital mutilation is a harmful practice which affects the reproductive health of women and continues to exist in some countries in spite of legislation outlawing it;

Further Concerned about the disproportionate impact of the HIV and AIDS pandemic on women, especially on the African continent;

Concerned Also about the problems relating to reproductive health care and the quality of services available to women in Africa, including the inability of existing healthcare institutions to provide adequate pre and post-natal care for mothers and babies (especially in cases of complications), the high rate of maternal mortality in a number of African countries, and the prohibition of abortion except where necessary to save the woman’s life:

1. Congratulates States which have ratified the Protocol, and urges them to take all the necessary measures to domesticate and harmonize their national laws in order to give full effect to the rights enshrined in the Protocol;
2. Urges States which have not yet ratified the Protocol to do so promptly and without reservations;

7. Requests States to reduce the maternal mortality rate and to take adequate measures to provide effective access for women to reproductive health services, including access to lawful medical abortion in accordance with the Protocol.
111. ACHPR/Res.111(XXXXII)07: RESOLUTION ON THE RIGHT TO A REMEDY AND REPARATION FOR WOMEN AND GIRLS VICTIMS OF SEXUAL VIOLENCE

Considering that rape in times of conflicts has been categorised as a crime against humanity and as a war crime in the founding statutes of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia (Art 5 (g)), of the International Criminal Court (Arts 7 and 8) and of the Special Court for Sierra Leone (Art 2(g)); and considering furthermore that the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda has qualified rape in conflict situations as an act of genocide case No. ICTR- 96-4-T (Sept 1998) and the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia classified rape as amongst the most serious crimes of war by defining it as a breach of the Geneva Conventions in case No.IT-94-1-T (May 1997);

Recalling furthermore the United Nations’ General Assembly Resolution A/RES/60/147 adopting ‘Basic Principles and Guidelines on the Right to a Remedy and Reparation for Victims of Gross Violations of International Human Rights Law and Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law’ in March 2006;

Noting with great concern the prevailing impunity for the perpetrators and accomplices of crimes of sexual violence and emphasising that a culture of impunity encourages the commission of such crimes;

Taking into consideration the legal and practical obstacles existing in many countries and preventing victims of sexual violence in particular in times of conflict, from accessing their rights to truth, justice and reparation, notably the lack of adequate training on sexual violence issues for actors of the judiciary and the lack of information on services and access to justice for victims;

Concerned by the extent of physical and psychological trauma that women and girls victims face as a result of sexual violence and by the necessity for them to receive adequate and accessible health care, including psychological support;

Acknowledging the civil society initiative creating the ‘Nairobi Declaration of the Right to A Remedy and Reparation for Women and Girls Victims of Sexual Violence’, which provides guiding principles for the implementation of programmes intended to achieve reparation for crimes of sexual violence perpetrated in times of conflicts;

ACHPR/Res.153 (XLVI) 09: RESOLUTION ON CLIMATE CHANGE AND HUMAN RIGHTS AND THE NEED TO STUDY ITS IMPACT IN AFRICA

The African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights, (African Commission), meeting at its 46th Ordinary Session held from 11 to 25 November 2009 in Banjul, The Gambia,

Bearing in mind its mandate to promote human and peoples rights and ensure their protection in Africa under the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights (the African Charter);

Considering the provisions of Articles 22 and 24 of the African Charter relating to the right of peoples to economic, social and cultural development and the right of peoples to a satisfactory environment favourable to their development;

Considering the provisions of the United Nations Declarations on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, which recognises the rights of indigenous peoples and communities to their ancestral lands, cultures, lifestyles and a safe satisfactory environment;

Noting Article II of the African Convention on the Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources (Maputo Convention) of 11 July 2003, which among other things, provides for “socially acceptable development policies and programmes” guided by human rights principles, including the right to development and the right of all peoples to a satisfactory environment favourable to their development;

Recalling that the Convention on Biological Diversity urges states Parties thereto to “… respect, preserve and maintain knowledge, innovations and practices of indigenous and local communities...protect and encourage customary use of biological resources in accordance with traditional cultural practices that are compatible with conservation or sustainable use requirements”;

Noting further that African regional standards for the protection of the environment, management of natural resources and human rights are consistent with provisions of the Convention on Biological Diversity of 5 June 1992, to which more than 40 African States are parties;

Taking note that climate change is principally the result of emissions of greenhouse gases, which remain relatively high in developed countries;

Concerned that the negotiations on climate change leading to the Copenhagen Conference in December 2009, make no clear reference to human rights principles, such as the rights to traditional knowledge and intellectual property of local and indigenous communities, as well as the principle of free, prior and informed consent by communities, as enshrined in the Maputo Convention and other relevant African human rights instruments;

Concerned further that the lack of human rights safeguards in various draft texts of the conventions under negotiation could put at risk the life, physical integrity and livelihood of the most vulnerable members of society notably isolated indigenous and local communities, women, and other vulnerable social groups;

The African Commission hereby:

1. Urges the Assembly of Heads of State and Government of the African Union to ensure that human rights standards safeguards, such as the principle of free, prior and informed consent, be included into any adopted legal text on climate change as preventive measures against forced relocation, unfair dispossession of properties, loss of livelihoods and similar human rights violations;

2. Urges the Assembly of Heads of State and Government to ensure that special measure of protection for vulnerable groups such as children, women, the elderly, indigenous communities and victims of natural disasters and conflicts are included in any international agreement or instruments on climate change;

3. Calls on the Assembly of Heads of State and Government to take all necessary measures to ensure that the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights is included in the African Union’s negotiating team on climate change;

The African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights (the African Commission), meeting at its 50th Ordinary Session held from 24th October to 5th November 2011 in Banjul, The Gambia:

Recalling its mandate to promote human and peoples’ rights and ensure their protection in Africa under the African Charter on Human and Peoples’ Rights (the African Charter);

Considering Article 22 of the African Charter which recognizes that all peoples have the right to their economic, social and cultural development and that States have the duty, individually or collectively, to ensure the exercise of the right to development;

Noting that this decision affirms the rights of ownership of the Endorois to their ancestral lands around Lake Bogoria and that these rights are protected by Art. 14 of the African Charter; territories they are located and whose management frameworks are not consistent with the principles of the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples;

Deeply concerned that the World Heritage Committee at its 35th session, on the recommendation of International Union for the Conservation of Nature (IUCN), inscribed Lake Bogoria National Reserve on the World Heritage List, without obtaining the free, prior and informed consent of the Endorois through their own representative institutions, and despite the fact that the Endorois Welfare Council had urged the Committee to defer the nomination because of the lack of meaningful involvement and consultation with the Endorois;
