

70/92_9AR: Ibrahima Dioumessi, Sekou Kande, Ousmane Kaba / Guinea

Summary of Facts

1. The communication<sup>1</sup> was submitted by Ibrahima Dioumessi, Sekou Kande, Ousmane Kaba, and received by the Commission on 15th November 1991. It contains no mailing address for the Complainants.

2. The communication alleges that following the coup d'etat of 4th July 1984 in Guinea, the Complainants were arrested, tortured and incarcerated for three years without charge or trial.

3. The Complainants allege violation of the right to security of persons and the right to fair trial. The former detainees request compensation for the moral and material prejudice they have suffered.

Procedure

4. The Commission was seized of the communication at its 12th Session in November 1992.

5. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Guinea was notified on 13th November 1992. The Secretariat also requested the Complainants' address.

6. In 1993 and 1994, numerous reminders were sent by the Secretariat to the Government of Guinea, but no response was received.

7. On 21st October 1994, the Guinean Government sent a Note Verbale to the Commission requesting that the Commission delay consideration of the communication until the 17th Session, in order to allow the government to submit its memorandum in response.

8. At the 17th Session in March 1995, the memorandum of the Government of Guinea had not been received, but it was decided to wait for it, and in the meanwhile to ask the Complainants if they had exhausted all domestic remedies.

9. All attempts to get the addresses of the complaints were of no avail.

10. At the 18th Session, the memorandum of the Government of Guinea still had not been received.

Law

11. The problem posed here is one of admissibility. To be admissible, a communication must fulfil all the conditions of Article 56 of the Charter, in particular, the identity of the Complainants so that they may be sent notifications.

12. In the present case, the Secretariat has not been able to remedy this lack of the Complainants' address.

Holding

For these reasons, the Commission

Declares the communication inadmissible.

Done in Praia, Cape Verde, October, 1995.
